Friday 14th November

Dear parents/carers,

I am writing to let you know the sad, but exciting, news that after more than 30 years here, Mrs Carrick will be retiring from teaching in the Spring. Her last official day will be Friday 13th February.

After dedicating her entire career to the children and families of Beaconhill, Mrs Carrick has made the decision to take a well-deserved retirement and spend more time with her new grandchildren.

During her time here, she has touched the lives of countless pupils, colleagues and families through her hard work, compassion and unwavering commitment to providing the very best education for every child in her care.

Throughout her time at Beaconhill, Mrs Carrick has been an exceptional teacher whose expertise and professionalism have enriched our school community. Her work in recent years with Northumbria University has further demonstrated her high level of expertise in teaching and learning and we have all benefitted enormously from the knowledge and experience she has shared.

While she will be a huge miss, I am delighted that she will be able to spend more time with her family. On behalf of all the staff - past and present - I want to thank her for her extraordinary contribution to Beaconhill and to wish her every happiness in her retirement.

The recruitment process for a new Reception teacher is already underway, and we will share further updates with you once an appointment has been made.

Many thanks,
Mr Routledge

J Routledge
